

I am sending this comment to encourage the FCC not to allow the "established business relationship" exemption for consumers in Indiana. Basically, since the law went into effect, the bothersome calls recieved from companies has ended much to my relief. I would be greatly discouraged if people call that I did not explicitly allow. Thank you for you time.
Seann Conklin